2nd - BARCELONA GOTHIC + PICASSO MUSEUM

Between the thirteenth and fifteenth century, Barcelona lived a splendid period thanks to the maritime trade. That morning we will dedicate to discover the medieval city. Accompanied by a guide, we will visit the Gothic Quarter, with its cathedral, Plaza del Rey Plaza Sant Jaume, Plaza Real, Las Ramblas, Boqueria Market, Sea Front and Ciutadella Park. Free time for picnic. Then visit the Picasso Museum, where we will enjoy the early work of the famous painter. We will finish the day at the port in a local restaurant where we will learn to cook Paella, then we will live the experience between stove and taste our own paella.

3th - BARCELONA MODERNIST

On this day, accompanied by a local guide, discover the most iconic Modernist Barcelona, where big names like Antonio Gaudí, Lluís Domènech i Montaner and Josep Puig, revolutionised the architecture of the late nineteenth century buildings. Walking tour along the Paseo de Gracia to photograph the exterior of the Lleo Morera, Casa Batlló and Atmeller buildings, these 3 buildings give name to the famous Manzana de la Discòrdia. We will continue the walk to Casa Milà, better known as "La Pedrera". Then, on public transport, we'll arrive at Park Güell, with its gardens, viaducts and columns. Free time for picnic. In the afternoon, we'll visit the Sagrada Família, Gaudí's unfinished temple which spent more than 40 years of his life and has become the symbol of the city.
